

Johnson Ayan Kolawole.

Financial Secretary

Johnson A. Kolawole is an Accountant, Business Management Consultant and Entrepreneur by profession with verse professional working experiences in several corporate establishments. Currently, he is the President & CEO of Kolaris Services Group International, LLC with a subsidiary, Edawa Global Services, Ltd in Nigeria. The entities specialize in Enterprise and Manpower Development and Management services. He is a graduate of Benedict College, Columbia, South Carolina in Business Administration with subsequent several professional corporate management and leadership trainings and responsibilities.

He is currently involved in several local and international Community development focused organizations among which are:

President, Greater Willingboro Business Association, (GWBA); President, Ekitikete International Forum (EIF); Former Chairman, Willingboro Human Relations Commission (WHRC); USA Envoy, Ekitipanupo Forum (EF); Member, Willingboro Public Library's African Community Advisory Board; Member, Willingboro Green Energy Advisory Committee; Member, Willingboro Economic Development Committee ; Financial Secretary, Oodua Foundation International.; Financial Secretary, Willingboro Community Development Corporation; Board Member, Ekitikete Wanda International Organization; Board Member, Federation of Ikun-Ekiti Descendants Union Overseas (FIDUO).

Johnson Ayan Kolawole is married to Egunola and blessed with four grown children children grownchildren.